At Philips, our goal is to improve the lives of 3 billion people a year by 2025. We take a two-dimensional approach to improving lives: social and ecological. In 2014, Philips improved the lives of over 1.9 billion people.

In 2014, Philips improved the lives of over 1.9 billion people.

Going green
Delivering green products that contribute to a healthier ecosystem

Innovating for energy efficiency
- Curbing the carbon footprint
- Transition to circular economy

Innovating in material use

Innovating in sustainable health care

Applying circular economy principles throughout
- Philips means reconsidering every element of our design, manufacture and supply process, while aiming for maximum use of renewable energy.
- Philips opened a refurbishment center for medical imaging systems in Best, The Netherlands, bringing circular economy benefits to health care.

Making the world healthier and more sustainable through innovation
- Innovating for energy efficiency
- Innovating in material use
- Innovating in sustainable health care
- Applying circular economy principles throughout

EU 2020 50% of energy consumption
- 52% of total sales
- 44% of energy consumption after installation

Innovating In material use

- Operation carbon footprint decrease by 5% compared to 2013
- Curbing the carbon footprint
- Transition to circular economy

Innovating in sustainable health care

- Innovating for energy efficiency
- Innovating in material use
- Innovating in sustainable health care

Applying circular economy principles throughout
- Philips means reconsidering every element of our design, manufacture and supply process, while aiming for maximum use of renewable energy.
- Philips opened a refurbishment center for medical imaging systems in Best, The Netherlands, bringing circular economy benefits to health care.